

LEGEND AND SUMMARY OF BEC ORANGE EAST DAY RIDER TRAIL

ORANGE 14.6 miles  counterclockwise loop
Start behind Day Trailer Parking area to the right.

ORANGE: Most orange arrows and X's have reflective silver tape. Riders start on the trail behind the Day Trailer Parking Lot, turn right and go about .5 mile to BEC area, turn right to go past the riding arena towards the river then turn left onto River Rd, a gravel road along the river. Trail turns left away from River in less than a mile after crossing iron rail bridge. Trail runs through woods crossing Dingle Creek about 3.5 miles from start and reaching the Bass Pond at about 6.5 miles. At Bass Pond there is a connector trail marked with Red Arrows on Yellow discs that returns to Day Trailer Parking area in 0.9 miles. Trail climbs gravel rd for about ½ mile before turning right to go past statue of Diana. There is a hitching rack where riders can tie horses and view the Biltmore House. Please observe no horse beyond this point signs. At just over 8 miles continue through woods finally emerging into fields in the Deer Park area at just past 11 miles. The hack barn and carriage barn are on the left. Go down through pines, sharp left hairpin across culvert and around field, then downhill, turn left just before paved road. Go through woods, make a sharp right, and continue. Cross paved road and go through field, cross culvert, and through field to lagoon. Go between the lagoon and the river. Continue back through fields and along horse paddocks and coming in from behind the Day Trailer Parking area.
