

LEGEND AND SUMMARY OF BEC WHITE FOREST DAY RIDER TRAIL

WHITE FOREST 15.2 miles  counterclockwise loop (pink on map, white diamonds on trail)
Start downstream on River Rd.

WHITE FOREST: The trail starts downstream on River Road, goes to the lagoon, turns right and crosses the paved road, climbing uphill and into woods. The trail passes below the carriage barn and then turns right to cross Deer Park Rd, goes through Deer Park Fields, and crosses another paved road into woods. About five miles out, come onto gravel road for short distance and then turn left onto single track up hill to Lone Pine Mountain, the high point on the Estate and then go around the old water reservoir for the Estate. Come downhill alternating between gravel road and single track, past the Bass Pond at about 7.5 mi from the start. At the Bass Pond, one can take the connector marked with Red Arrows on Yellow Discs for 0.9 miles directly back to the Day Trailer Parking Area. For Full White Forest continue into woods for another 7 miles, crossing Dingle Creek twice and on into the BEC area. Return downstream on River Rd. for about ½ mile to Day Trailer Parking area.

MARKING: Follow White ARROWS! Loops are marked with diamonds with black arrows attached to trees or stakes. Diamond is in the color of the trail.

At turns, expect one or more warning arrows before the turn. Example - turn arrow for White Trail.

There are confirming straight arrows after turns. Example - confirming arrow for White Trail.

There are occasional “go straight” arrows along the trail. Example - straight arrow for White Trail.

Color-matched octagons with Large Black X mean wrong way on the loop of that color octagon.
