

LEGEND AND SUMMARY OF RED EAST DAY TRAIL

RED EAST 15 miles  Counterclockwise loop with shorter 8 and ½ miles option

RED EAST: The trail starts on the back side of the Day Trail Parking to the right going behind the guest horse paddocks. The trail runs through the French Broad River bottom and woods and then open areas created by Tropical Storm Helene for 7 and ¾ miles before reaching the Bass Pond. (see ALTERNATE SHORTER ROUTE.) The trail then alternates between gravel roads and dirt trails. At 9 miles the trail comes to a pavilion area with a tie rack. You may tie your horse and take the very short walk to view the front of the Biltmore House from the statue of Diana, the Huntress (photo op). The trail then climbs on a gravel road and goes around the old water reservoir for the Estate and reaches Lone Pine Mountain, the high point on the Estate. The trail continues through woods reaching the Deer Park area with the carriage barn and hack stable at 13 miles. The trail then descends to the Reflecting Lagoon with views of the Biltmore House on the left. From the lagoon that trail returns through the French Broad River bottom to the Day Trailer parking area.

ALTERNATE SHORTER ROUTE. At 7 and ¾ miles at the Bass Pond, one can take the GREEN East Trail (Black Arrows on Green Diamonds) for ¾ mile back to the Day Trailer Parking Area. This shortens the ride to about 8 and ½ miles.
